

BCVTA Newsletter

Participate in Research about Working in the Veterinary Field

Who is invited to participate?

Anyone who is currently working part-time or full-time in a veterinary clinic. We are hoping to speak with veterinarians, technicians, and assistants.

What is required?

You will participate in a 60- to 90-minute interview. The interview will be scheduled at a time that is convenient for you.

Why should you participate?

You will have the chance to share what it is like doing your job, with a specific focus on ongoing ownership changes within the industry. You will receive an $20 gift card as a token of appreciation for your time.

Contact the Primary Investigator at:
Kirsten.Robertson@ufv.ca
to find out more about the study or to schedule an interview.

www.ufv.ca

LOCUM INSURANCE

The Registered Veterinary Technologists and Technicians of Canada (RVTTTC) has partnered with the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association (CVMA) to provide its members with access to professional liability coverage through the CVMA Insurance Program.

For more information, go to: <https://rvttcanada.ca/rvttc-membership/>

A black and white sign with the words "UPCOMING" and "EVENTS" in a speech bubble shape, placed on a wooden surface next to a small potted plant.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- September 29 - October 1 - Canadian Veterinary Virtual Symposium
- October 1-31 - RVT Month
- October 14-18 - CanWest Veterinary Conference
- October 21 - RVT Month Trivia Night - Details to come

SAVE THE DATE

British Columbia
Veterinary
Technologists Association

FALL CONFERENCE

Sunday, October 23

bcvta.com

The word "JOBS" is spelled out using large, colorful letters on small pieces of paper pinned to a corkboard. The letters are: J (black with red outline), O (white with black outline), b (teal), and S (white with red outline).

JOBS

Check the job board on the BCVTA
website for current openings for RVTs!

Have questions? Reach out!

E: bcvtaboard@gmail.com

BCVTA Office Hours:

Monday - Wednesday 9:00am - 4:00pm

Thursday 9:00am - 2:00pm